50X1-HUM

Fritz Selbmann, Minister of Metallurgy and Ore Mining, on 29 July 1952 informed Perelivcheko (fnu), Deputy Chairman of the Soviet Control Commission in Berlin-Germany, of several recent personnel changes in his Ministry. Selbmann stated that he was doing this as a result of a decision taken by the 5th Central Committee. The changes are as follows:

- a) (Fnu) Goschütz has become State Secretary in the Ministry.
- b) Dr. (fnu) Kraemer has been relieved as director of the Hauptabteilung Eisenindustrie and is now chief of the Central Construction Office of the metallurgical industry.
- c) Rudi Steinward, former director of Maxhütte Unterwellenborn, has assumed Kraemer's position.
- d) Hanns Enghardt has become chief of Hauptabteilung Erzbergbau; Enghardt was director of the Administration of the Non-ferrous (Nichteisen-metall) Heavy Industry and, previous to that, held the position of chief director of VAG Buntmetall.
- e) Adolf Buchholz has been appointed by the Secretariat of the 5th Central Committee to replace Steinward. Buchholz was formerly political director (Kommissarisches-Direktor) of BHO.
- f) Hermann Fenske, formerly a Hauptabteilungsleiter in the Ministry, has been named to be director of BHO.
